

AGENDA

Wednesday 15th May

The Windsor & Eton Suite

19.00 Drinks, dinner and welcome

Thursday 16th May

The Windsor & Eton Suite

09.00 Welcome and introduction

James Bird (Price Forbes & Partners)

09.15 Current & future regulatory trends, including:
- New technology such as gene therapy

Edward Allera (Buchanan Ingersoll)

10.15 So now you have a product how do you get paid?
- How might technology change this in the future?
- New technology such as gene therapy

Kerry Weems (Mycroft Bioanalytics)

11.00 Refreshments and networking

11.30 The legal landscape in the US and EU

Jeffrey Horowitz & Ian Dodds-Smith (Arnold & Porter)

12.30 How does the changing environment affect insurers' view of risk?

Panel:

*Lee Farrow (Chubb), Peter Tillmans (HDI)
& Linda Schultz (Navigators)*

Acanthus restaurant

13.15 Buffet lunch & networking

The Windsor & Eton Suite

14.20 Regulatory action – an insurer's view

- Trends in regulatory enforcement
- Receiving warning letters:
 - How might it happen, what does it mean, how do you react, what's the impact?
- The insurability of these non-damage events:
 - The process
 - What do insurers look for or look to avoid (pre and post regulatory action)?
 - Claim process

*Jenny Yu, Petra Mates (Munich Re)
& Lynne Byers (NSF Health Sciences)*

15.10 Cyber risk and insurance:

- Risk identification, assessment and quantification
- Disconnect between insurance and risk
- Claim disappointment and how to avoid it in future
- What the insurance market can generally provide

*Toby Clowes (Price Forbes & Partners)
Joseph Hancock (Mishcon de Reya)
& Erica Constance (QBE)*

16.00 Refreshments and networking

16.20 Clinical trials

- Latest trends, to include views on:
 - New technology such as gene therapy
 - Use of technology

*Neil Livingstone & Nick Cook (Price Forbes & Partners)
Janina Diggins (Parexel)
Alexander Das (QBE Insurance)
& Lisa Mitchell (Syneos Health)*

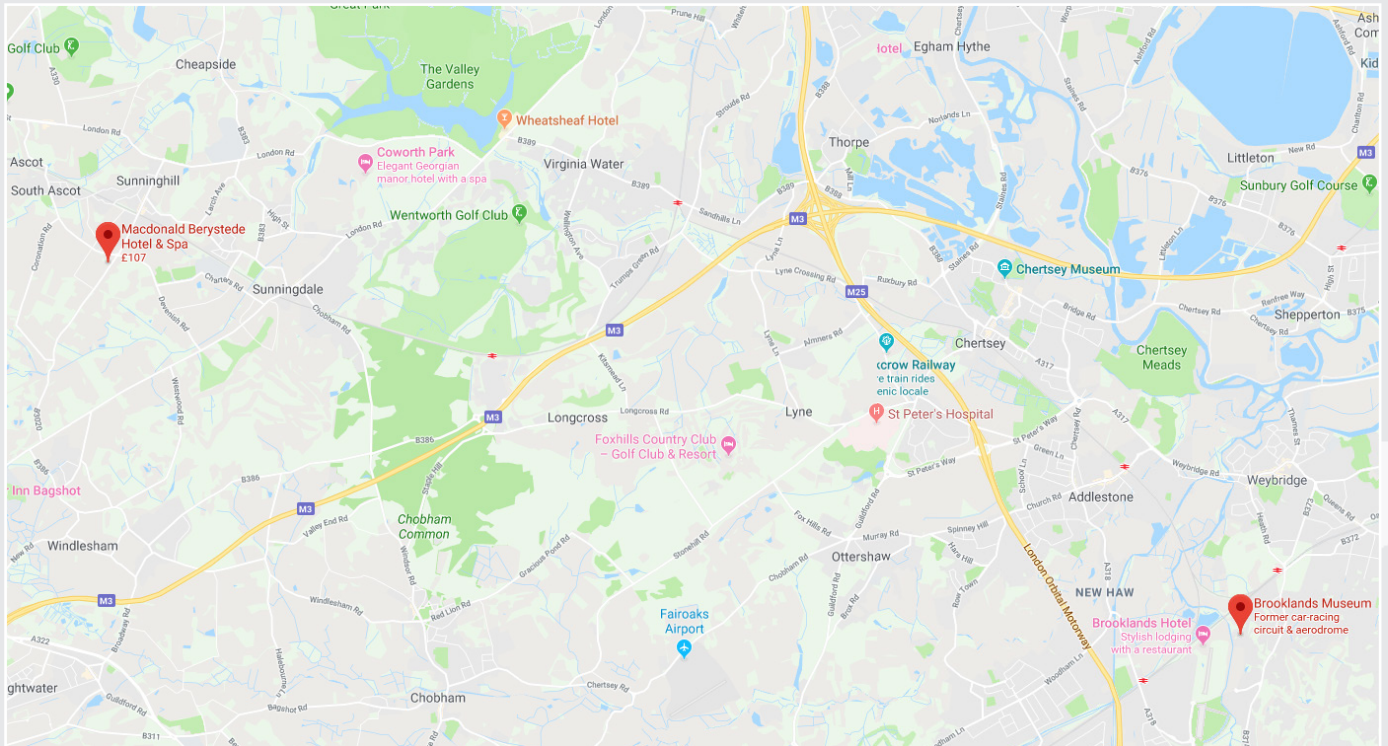

17.00 Closing comments

Dinner arrangements for Thursday 16th May

18.00 Coaches to Brooklands Museum

19.30 Three course sit down dinner

21.45 Coaches back to Macdonald Berystede Hotel & Spa

Friday 17th May

The Windsor & Eton Suite

09.15 Opening comments

09.30 Innovation and use of technology in Life Science risk management:

- Update from Pharm3r
- Update from Praedicat
- Update from Intersys

*Tina Kirby (Beazley)
Libbe Englander (Pharm3r)
Adam Grossman (Praedicat)
& Catherine Geyman (Intersys)*

10.45 Refreshments and networking

11.15 Alternative Risk Transfer (ART):

- What, why, how of ART
- Examples and financial outcomes
- Helping execute a strategy (including use of captives)

*Alexander Hanks (Price Forbes & Partners)
Neil Campbell (Allenby Consulting)
& Chris Terry (Allianz)*

12.00 Closing comments

Acanthus restaurant

12.15 Lunch and departure